These guys were SO damn good this afternoon in Broadstairs, I never got to go anywhere else ahead of tonight's Nine Below Zero gig at the, Pavilion. The Jackals, from Brighton, tick all my rhythm and blues and blues rock boxes.... Everyone in the band knows what they are doing, inside out and backwards, and the sound was great. Big respect!

The Jackals at the Piston Broke in Shoreham tonight. Excellent entertainment for several reasons. Firstly the pub has a great selection of cask ales at decent prices. Secondly it's got a nice vibe and a good landlord who knows beer and bands and finally the Jackals are just fucking superb and get better with age. They make it look easy when it ain't. No excuses. If you like a bluesy rnb band go and see them. Preferably at the Piston Broke. You won't be disappointed.

THE JACKALS - PRESS REALEASE

The Band Members

Steve Griffiths Lead Vocals & Harmonica

Steve has been playing & performing live music for the past 15 years and is known for his powerful voice with great tone and vocal range. He can sing traditional blues standards, powerful blues rock or melodic ballads. He also delivers his own style of driving blues harp. Steve was the original member of the Jackals that has evolved through several iterations into the stable unit seen today.

Jim Bishop Guitar and Backing Vocals

Jim has been playing guitar for many years and honed his art in function & popular covers bands where technical accuracy was mandatory. He is now at home playing the music that he is truly passionate about and is incredibly modest about his talent.

Chris Hookway Bass Guitar

Chris is a master of his art, and has made a study out of playing a rock steady and solid bass while also enhancing the music with his exceptional competence and knowledge of his craft. Chris & Stu, our drummer work really well together and like all great rhythm sections, are greater than the sum of their parts.

Stuart McCord Drums

Stu is one of those rare drummers who is entirely intuitive with a rock solid sense of rhythm and majestic timing. Stu could play before he could walk and is always being approached to dep for other bands envious of the quality he brings to the rhythm section. Always humble and modest of his innate talent, Stu is one of the nicest guys around and an absolute pleasure to have in the band.
